Commercial General Liability

This policy provides coverage for bodily injury or property damage suffered by a third party caused by the negligence of a member of the CCGA. Negligence is often defined as the omission to do what a reasonable person (with similar training and background) would do – or the “doing” of something which a prudent and reasonable person would not do. The basis for the policy is bodily injury and/or property damage to a third party, and also includes premises liability for exposures such as trip & falls.

The coverage is subject to a limit of $5,000,000 for any one event and the main exclusion would be loss arising out of the use of watercraft, as this would be covered under the Protection and Indemnity policy.

Named Insured:	Canadian Coast Guard Auxiliary et Al (as per page i)
